Carmichaels Area Presents Echo '81

Rain . . .
We are ready for a new beginning.
It's the end of everything that we ever began.
Now it's over.
The last lightning bolt.
Has just flashed across the sky . . .

Woke Up This Morning
Dragged Myself Across the Bed
Alice Went to Wonderland
But I Stayed Home Instead,
Cause I'm a Wanderer

The Tide is High,
But I'm Holding on . . .

You Have to Believe
We Are Magic
Nothing Can Stand
In Our Way . . .

And the Secrets that We Shared,
The Mountains That We Moved
Caught Like a Wild Fire Out of Control
Till There Was Nothing Left to Burn
And Nothing Left to Prove . . .

Love on the Rocks . . .
Yesterday's Gone,
But Now All I Want
Is a Smile . . .

Our time together has been too brief, though each moment of laughter or tears shall belong to my most cherished memories of my youth and childhood and the wonderful children who became people with me.

I shall always be thankful and happy remembering all those special times I've had the privilege of sharing. Each friendship that developed and grew from our times together will always be remembered by me in the most special way.

Each moment I spent laughing, learning and working with my friends will remain a large part of me after each face and name is long gone.

I would like to thank my senior class for being themselves and for allowing me to be one of them and mostly for accepting me as one of their friends.

Jo Ann Clayton

And as I sit here trying to figure the words I want to say, my mind wonders back to the wonderful times I've spent with my friends; laughing, smiling, crying, sharing secrets, and most of all listening. I cherish these moments, sitting around a fire, laying on a bed or just bulling around at a dance. There are just so many things I want to remember. But I won't put them down because there isn't enough time.

I want to thank all the people who've helped me, encouraged me, put up with me, and loved me when I needed it the most. I want to thank my friends for being there, when I needed them the most.

Good Luck Class of "81!" May all your wishes come true, and may your dreams become reality. I love you all and God Bless You!

Christine Vrana

An appropriate quote from Ralph Waldo Emerson reads: "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm." This was very true as we worked to put this yearbook together. But the long nights after school and long days (and short nights) at camp paid off.

First, I'd like to thank Chris and JoAnn for keeping me from going crazy and the efficient workers who made it all go smoother. I'd also like to thank my patient friends for putting up with me while I devoted my time to the yearbook, the janitors who put up with our screaming and fighting in the yearbook room and Mr. Busti for his keys when Miss Zavatchan was nowhere to be found.

This book will probably be the only thing that keeps us together after graduation. The pictures may be black and white and after a few years the pages may be torn and may fade. But the memories will never fade and they're worth more than their weight in gold.

"It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after our own; but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd, keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude."

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Underclassmen

There is only one pretty child in the world
And every mother has one:
Yet, nature makes boys and girls
Lovely to look at so they may be Tolerated until they acquire sense.

Senior Memories . . .

TODD ALLISON . . . Future Plans: Attend college and become a coffee bean picker in Brazil. I leave to Brent, Mark and Ed the "April fresh smell" of the locker room toilet. I'll remember watching Brian being swallowed up by a wave of folding chairs.

KATHY BAKER . . . Future Plans: Live near the ocean in the summer and in the mountains in the winter. I leave Jacqie Tea Bags and Charlene the chair in first period plastics. If memories are supposed to last forever I hope these will stay with me and remind me of some very special times. There was the Dairy Queen Bunch who got detention . . . the first time C. C., C. H., and K. H. went skiing . . . going to the drive-in in the summer and taking M&M's . . . K. H. breaking a disk in P.G. . . . all the homeroom periods . . . and just riding around. These memories wouldn't be special without nice friends.

CINDY BALABAN . . . Future Plans: Attend WVU, get a good job and live life to its fullest. To next year's seniors I leave anything that has to do with Econ, the fun of being a senior and some advice — "Don't take shorthand." I'll remember Nancy Cutwright's cat, "Cindy" . . . P.D.E.S. . . . senior night . . . football games . . . mousetace . . . "my" kids in 8th period . . . going with C. H., C. H., C. C., K. B. and arriving so early every day that sometimes we even made homeroom . . . my shorthand book being mysteriously put back . . . all the weddings and good times I had this past summer with my friends . . . being held hostage in the shop by M. J. . . . working at the DQ.

LAWRENCE BELAN . . . Future Plans: I hope to get a better education and a job that will pay a great deal of money. I leave the S & BV Co. to Butch Shaffer so that it will become a big hit at CAHS. I'll never forget the day at the California Math Competition. Goodbye CAHS forever!

LORI BIALKO . . . Future Plans: To hopefully become a physical therapist, take a vacation and teach my "cat how to fish." I leave my locker no. 5, and long hard days and a lot of homework to the "The Family" next year . . . I'll remember the football games . . . the senior parties . . . senior night . . . when I fell off the couch at T. J.'s . . . pep rallies . . . and when Pete Swift got head cheerleader at the pep rally and dressed up like his sister . . . I also can't forget everyone on Friday rushing to get their Wordpak's done . . . taking Stan to the hospital . . . my "birdbrained" homeroom . . . and to all the seniors the 3:34 bell!

BRIAN BLAKER . . . Future Plans: To get away from the gas station. I leave my drum and all my shop classes. I'll remember trying to understand John Carr and all the crazy times I had with my friends.

KEITH BOWMAN . . . Future Plans: Try to find a job and if not then go into the Navy and pursue drafting. I leave Johnny Carr to whoever can understand him and put up with him and most of all I leave you the cafeteria food. Keep on hoping juniors that Mrs. Christopher will retire some day. I'll remember all of the time I spent with Tammy and the crazy trig classes and the homeroom periods, Kenny's birthday . . . the food battles . . . the football games . . . and the ball.

JIM BRITNER . . . Future Plans: To go to college at Pitt for four years for a Master's in electrical engineering, to own a farm and to be happy. I leave the rigors and responsibilities of being an SNLV member to whoever decides to carry it on. I'll remember Washington mall, a very "exciting" PSU day, the Jefferson football game, the night before . . . the B-C banner . . . assorted useful accessories . . . "record-teering" . . . all the R-rated movies I saw . . . Career Night . . . the wild day at CSC . . . garbage disposal at B-C high school . . . Kennywood . . . the California flower girls . . . the voyage to Morgantown . . . all the nights the SNLV skipped SAT classes . . . orange juice . . . the party over the hill . . . the night we got caught . . . the Laser Loop . . . swimming in the Brownsville River . . . the Waynesburg College Library . . . all the times the French Club went to Pizza Hut . . . New Year's Eve . . . October 31.

JACKIE BRODAK . . . Future Plans: To eventually become manager of Brodak's Super Market. I leave my whistle to Rochelle and to Dena and Joey I only hope the days go speedy. Memories? I guess that's what it's all about. I'll remember the long days Cathy C. and I tried to shorten. For example, we shortened each day by cutting third period, we went for the record. We seriously had the teacher believing we had our classes changed to lessons at the Dairy Queen. We were caught but jumped out of the art room windows when other classmates were viewing a film. I remember when Cathy and I thought we were cops and carried water guns with us to the junior high . . . Butalla's Health classes which might be better left unsaid . . . I wouldn't want the superintendent looking for me . . . those hot parades . . . those cold football games . . . I wouldn't give them up for anything. They were good memories with friends like Cathy, Bakes and Kelly. I do have something special to remember. The first time I met that someone special. I only wish one of these kisses my toad will turn into my own prince charming.

JO ANN CAYTON . . . Future Plans: To attend IUP and major in accounting, dye my hair an unusual color, return to see if Miss Z. has retained her sanity and attend next year's coal show parade to tell all the colorguard to "Smile Pretty!" To the class of '82, I leave all the great times to come . . . I leave the yearbook room with all of its wonderful contents and memories, to all the remaining colorguard, summer band practices and freezing at games, to Bodnar, Lisa S., Chris D., "Hanley Germs" and "Little Chess" I leave all the fun times to come and my best wishes for you all. To Miss Z., I leave memories of the yearbook seminar and all the trouble Stan, Chris and mostly me seemed to get into. To Mike A. and Ruth P., memories of graphics, to Mr. Craig, someone as devoted as Darlene (Keys) and me. To "Michael," wonderful memories of me and "MY" chair. I'll always remember football games . . . stage crew . . . band bus . . . the time me and Dunlap wrote our names in the snow on the softball field with her Blazer . . . senior night . . . "Chase" . . . "helping" Kenny with his locker . . . editing the yearbook . . . "helping" the cheerleaders cheer with Dunlap, Darlene, Brenda, Mary, and Cindy . . . working for hours after school with Stan and Chris . . . cleaning the yearbook room more "than my own room" . . . seeing the "Wanderers" with Cindy . . . Cinderella Ball and the fun I had with Michael . . . when Chris, Dunlap, Darlene, Jimmy Billy Jo and me "buried" Mr. Craig's truck with snow . . . "Princess Grace" (the Original) . . . "You frog" . . . "Becky, I'm gonna spit on you!" . . . "Shut up! Why don't you just shut up!?" . . . Jody and the "Pittsburgh Zoo" . . . "Hello?! Hello!!" . . . "Carmela, put your clothes on!" . . . "You fool!" . . .

JAIME CHAMBERS . . . Future Plans: To get as far away from Carmichaels as possible and live an easy life.

KEN CHRISTOPHER . . . Future Plans: Fireman, paramedic. I leave to Timmy B. first base and to Brent B. my shoulder injury. I'll remember singing in the halls, watching Brian B. getting run over by chairs, and Blondie opening my locker every day.

JOHN CLARCHICK . . . Future Plans: To live my life to its fullest. I leave my brother my office with "Big Sister" in it and Coach McCombs the job of finding my #77 blue jersey. I'll remember skipping SAT classes . . . going out racking . . . pumpkin-hunting and dropping them off at T. M.'s house.

DARWIN CLISTER . . . Future Plans: To become a sales representative in New Zealand. I leave the underclassmen the same torture I had. And I'd like to remember what I forgot X 40.

BILL CONNOR . . . Future Plans: Attend Waynesburg College. I leave my brother Bob the sprints at the end of basketball practice and to Dana Nichols I leave AC/DC . . . I'll remember Patty H.

CATHY CREE . . . Future Plans: To go to college and live life to its fullest. I leave Brian a lot of early mornings and long days. I'll always remember when J. B. and I jumped out the art room window and went to the Dairy Queen . . . those summer days when we went to Science class soaked . . . skipping classes and Starsky and Hutch in the hall . . . then there were the benches in the yard . . . white Caddi's . . . running through the field at 2 A.M. . . . the time she tried to drive a standard and we ended up stalled sideways in the middle of the road . . . all the wrong answers in Econ class and the days of agony me, J. B., K. H., and K. B. spent in health class. Going to parties and West Virginia with K. H. . . . J.B.'s Polish New Year's Eve Party . . . skiing . . . the days at the pool and the day me, J. S. and K. H. went sign hunting.

CINDY DURCO . . . Future Plans: To go to W.V. Career College and to be successful in everything I do. I leave to Stephen all of the good times and not too many of the bad. To Lisa and Shree, I leave all the fun times in Band and all the Crazy times at football games and the fun with the guys in Va. Beach.

JOE DURCO . . . Future Plans: I plan to attend college but have not made my mind up which one at this time. I leave all those football players who will visit Dr. Patterson for the needle. I'll remember those wild and crazy times in the hospital at West Virginia.

MARY DURCO . . . Future Plans: To attend Indiana Univ. of Pa. and be the only Durco within a hundred mile radius. I leave to Anna, my good grades; to Chris, my excellent personality and Kelli, all the luck in the world . . . To T. C. and T. C. I leave the first seven minutes of band . . . To Bod and Unk I leave the Spanish bulletin boards and 35¢ a piece . . . And to "Sestor Pat" I leave the presidency of the Chuck fan club, the streets of Buckeye, purple pop, a spittoon and luck . . . I'll always remember Tequilla Junction with the Hathaways, Bod and Greg . . . cookies for the "Tea" . . . Pinata junior year . . . bulletin boards in Spanish . . . all the classes I missed with passes . . . stage crew . . . getting "busted" in the yearbook room . . . D & H Guinea Pig Grooming.

SUSIE DUNLAP . . . Future Plans: To be successful, go to college, and visit O.J.W., Ken, Domonick, Dave and Mike W. as often as possible. I leave Mela her very own locker and Mrs. Christopher's Econ class and hopefully Ozzie will have a rotten year. Ha. Ha. And Mr. Hoyle the best in 82. I'll remember the South Fayette tourneys, "The Chase," football, basketball and wrestling busses . . . SAT classes . . . J-M football games . . . racking with the guys . . . All the great times with Mela running around and having fun . . . carnival nights riding around with someone very special at the time . . . writing mine, Jo Ann's and Cindy's names in the snow with a 4-wheel drive . . . going to the movies . . . the mall . . . century III . . . and the fur shop with a friend. Wrestling scores . . . summer practices . . . sections, regionals and state wrestling tournaments . . . meeting secret lovers at places where we weren't supposed to be . . . all the kicks my friends and I got out of being bad . . . parties we had out on the lawns . . . all the nights we stayed up till dawn telling our secrets to each other . . . putting 260 miles on the car in one day . . . getting grounded and going to the parks to see some guys . . . all the joys, disappointments, hopes and dreams that live in us . . . If I could leave one message it'd be, love your time here. You don't get a second chance. Live each and every day to its fullest. There will never be another one just like it. For when you're gone you're gone and hopefully you did what you wanted to do. And those dear and close friends you spent your years with hopefully won't forget you. All they have is your memory now.

MIKE EVOSEVICH . . . Future Plans: To complete and further my education, better my knowledge and be wealthy, willing and ready for N. B. and to settle down sometime in the future. I leave the happiness and hardships of romance and I leave the high times to the ones who know they are. I would like to remember all the years I went to CAHS and because my friends and I got crazier and crazier, that's why I want to remember them. And all the times I spent with all the girls that I knew and went with. And, girls of CAHS never forget me, and always keep in touch. Stay cool and stay crazy class of 81.

CINDY FOLAN . . . Future Plans: To be successful and happy, and own an MGB. I leave my sister Linda to carry on the "tradition." I remember the receptions we attended . . . the "inside-out dress" one and being saved by "Dad" . . . summer vacations with love of beach . . . going to Waynesburg College and swinging on the "curtains" with Lottie . . . the "sweet smelling skunks" . . . the crazy w ends . . . joining Jaybird Street at Ramada . . . "Spanky's" and "Pina Coladas" . . . the touch and Big Earl in Morgantown . . . playing game . . . but what I'll remember most of all is that another day of school meant that it was another day less to get up in the morning fix my hair and find something to wear.

ALEX GALATIC . . . Future Plans: To go to school and become an engineer. I leave the school, Section 17 Golf championship plaqu the trophy case. I'd like to remember graduation and beating McGuffey.

BECKY GOLDSBERRY . . . Future Plans: To marry a wonderful guy named David this summer then to get a degree in elementary ed tion at California State College then to have Eric and Nicole and live happily ever after. I leave to Karl, Keith and Pam the years they have and to make the best of them. I also leave Mr. Craig my squeaky voice and the happiness of carefree high school days to everyo I want to remember all the wonderful times I've had with my friends and the thrill of finally being a senior. I also want to remem celebrating my first year with David and knowing it will last forever.

BILL HANLEY . . . Future Plans: Move to Hollywood and become a movie star. I leave the future of the football team and all the dou sessions. I'll remember the parties and all the crazy things my mom didn't catch me doing.

BILL HANUSCHOCK . . . Future Plans: To go to Brazil and pick coffee beans with Todd and Bill. I leave my chair in the gym office whoever may come along. I'll remember when Brian had the only perfect ride down the center stairs on chairs.

KELLY HARR . . . Future Plans: Attend college, get rich, be happy with John and live life to its fullest until I can't live it any more. I leave the head colorguard of 81-82 all my coughdrops before calling commands, lots of luck and fond memories of the seniors left behind. I remember the good times when I began being friends with C. C., J. B. and K. B. . . . health class . . . always in trouble . . . Mrs. Bute always yelling at me and K. B. for talking . . . Trying to get to the Dairy Queen before Health and not making it back in time . . . breaki the disk in P.G. . . . when I bumped into John at J. B.'s party . . . all the crazy parties me and C. C. went through . . . Going to West Virgi with C. C. (3 hours?) . . . skiing with C. C., K. B. and C. H. . . . the guys from the store . . . Halloween and the whipped cream . . . the w day getting blamed for vandalism . . . Mr. Neroni's papers . . . Last year's Chem. classes . . . Parties, Nemacolin, Crucible, Maple St. s just riding around . . . practices and football games, swimming every day . . . going out with John every night . . . New Year's Eve . . . can't write all the fond memories but I'll never forget those memories, my good friends and my special guy . . . I love them all.

BECKY HARTLEY . . . Future Plans: To marry Roger and have a beautiful life together. I leave the last stall in the first floor Senior hig lavatory and all the teachers. I want to remember being Miss Merry Christmas and all the new friends I made and all the times Kathy a I skipped lunch and hung out in the first floor lav, and all the quizzes in Mr. Busti's room in 7th period His tests weren't hard though especially want to remember sneaking out to see Roger 7th period and at the window in Mr. Busti's room when he was on his way t work.

SUSAN HATHAWAY . . . Future Plans: To go to some college and major in communications. I leave Mrs. McWilliams and Mrs. Matras the office under their control. To T. C., T. C., D. B., P. H., and G. M. I leave this wonderful school with all of its pleasures. Remember Ecol Certainly not. I will remember the oranges . . . peas . . . raisins . . . peanuts . . . terminated rodents . . . bovines . . . pigs . . . sheep . . . Espanol class with G. M. and D. B. . . . Nellie Spook Baby . . . Binky Somersault . . . Prune Marilyn . . . My fellow reporters Brenda, Darlene, Rachelle and Alta . . . my first Editor in "chief" Stanley . . . my friends . . . y la amis beta Susana.

CAROL HOLDA . . . Future Plans: Attend West Virginia University and major in accounting, to have a happy life. I leave having to eat Mr. Craig and Mr. Hoyle hand and foot to anyone who's dumb enough to work without pay. I also leave the colorguards a wish for a goo year in "82". And whoever leads them all the headaches Kelly and I have had. I'll remember being a colorguard, the football game wrestling matches and basketball games . . . the night at the victory sockhop . . . the trips to Morgantown with my friends . . . the ni that Lottie, Cindy, Kim and Linda left me at Morgantown . . . all the times certain people played with my psycho brain . . . Lottie and long talks about our problems . . . "puddy pento" . . . the Cinderella Ball . . . cheers on senior night . . . second chances . . . finding o about the J.R.'s . . . November 8 . . . Stealing pumpkins in Jefferson . . . going jogging . . . diego red . . . roses on senior night . . . jumping in volcanoes . . . kennywood . . . May 30th . . . when Tommy and I went to see his grandfather.

SONYA HOUSEL . . . Future Plans: Go to college and become a physical education teacher and someday get married. To Trisha, the best of luck with cheerleading and bus #5 (you can have my headaches), and to Peck, the best senior year. I'll never forget locking Brenda in a big gym locker, going to the football playoff games, going to the ball and throwing mints, and my 16th birthday, and March 9 at play practice, and my unforgettable weekends, and my tiny little marks.

TONYA HOUSEL . . . Future Plans: To go to beauty school, then to marry Scot Lippencott. To my little sister Trisha I leave the memories of school and my books. I'll always remember all the good times I had with my friends and with Scot.

FRANCES HUSENITS . . . Future Plans: To go to college and become a social worker and become a good mom. I leave Mary John and Lori C. the task of getting rid of Miss Gibson. I'd like to remember all the good times during open lunch . . . playing "wink" in the lav . . . Miss Gibson putting out the "Fire" . . . Taking gym while pregnant and bumping into Belinda's fat belly while dancing . . . Empire's concert . . . the conservation club trip with K. J., S. D., K. R., and D. M. . . . Mrs. Christopher's homeroom comedy hour.

BRENDA IAMS . . . Future Plans: Go to college and be a welder and maybe some day get married. I leave my locker #43 to my brother Dwayne and one more year of school. I'll remember all the fun I had going to the football and basketball games with my friends . . . and getting caught in a hailstorm in the back of a truck on Sonya's 16th birthday.

KRIS JACK . . . Future Plans: To be faster than a speeding bullet, more powerful than a shot of moonshine and able to leap tall buildings in a single bound. I leave my jap-zapper to beat off the Commie's, my morning cup of coffee, Neroni's narrative hook and the first floor lav to anyone who thinks they can "maintain." I'd like to remember jammin' down at the A.G. concert with S. H., and J. D. . . . a certain loveable bald teacher . . . My Fair Lady's marvelous make-up crew . . . the junior high's first floor lav and the "candy man" . . . the morning office roll call — A. K., K. R., N. C., M. L., K. J., S. D. and where's S. H.? . . . Tuna fish sandwiches . . . All the near trips to Penn State with S. H. . . . Hoyle's Angels . . . M. C. and her clacking mints . . . the senior party . . . all the redundant trite jokes, Mr. Neroni's growing podium . . . Albert's playboy apartment . . . the Trig class alma mater "Dazed and Confused" . . . no "beep beep" "no beep" (K. R., C. V.) . . . All L.B.'s morning presents . . . the nerve-racking" trip to W.Va. with the loveable Mrs. Stone . . . Being trapped and held prisoner at WVCC . . . the "you know who's" and the "so and so's" and the apartment of the immaculately stoned future.

MIKE JONES . . . Future Plans: Get a job in the coal mine and marry a beautiful woman. To Bill Harbarger I leave the auditorium steps and lots of hardy partying. I'll remember our great success as the 1980-81 football team.

KIM KERR . . . Future Plans: Become a dental hygienist, get married and live in a big "red" house next to a "blue" one and live happily ever after. I would like to leave the cheerleaders all the fun during football season and the hectic basketball and wrestling seasons and the best of luck at camp. To Cassy I leave all the wonderful times of my school year. Make the most of yours they really are the best times of your life. To Brian, lots of luck to make it through the next five years. I would like to remember all the fun I've had with the cheerleaders especially at camp, our fantastic football team and all my friends. Especially Sherri red and blue . . . yellow vests . . . spotted ponies . . . mashed potatoes and stuffing . . . bulldogs . . . Runite on ice . . . the night Sherri and Bill, me and the bottle went on a double date . . . senior night . . . going the other way on a one-way street. . . . playing elf . . . New Year's Eve with Bobby . . . the night in Waynesburg with Rochelle, Cas, Charlene and Cindy . . . the night at Pizza Hut when Bobby, Bill and Kevin were playing Charlie Daniels . . . and most of all, all the terrific memories of the good times with my Johnny.

ANGIE KOWALEWSKI . . . Future Plans: Go to Cal State, get a good job and try to make it work with a certain someone. I leave all of Mrs. Christopher's boring classes (typing, shorthand, and Econ) and to Mr. Ferek, Miss Morton and Miss Zavatchan I leave a case of M&M's and I also leave Gibby's mouth to all of the couples in the hall. I'll remember the summer of 1980 . . . the crazy nights at the drive-in . . . and elsewhere. The weekend of September 19 and the boat ride on the lake and in the tent supposedly playing cards while M and P generated heat. Running to the camp bathroom every 5 minutes for a break . . . the 5-mile walks so we didn't have to sit there with our parents . . . the time when we were running from a little white car and took a short cut through Hoge's trailer court . . . the night of the ball and afterwards . . . the second donut I did in my whole life and got chased by a car. I felt like Smokey and the Bandit but I lost him. Altogether I want to remember my senior year from the summer of 1980 to the time I graduate, excluding a few days I spent at home for a very good reason or otherwise I wouldn't have been there. All the crazy times in the junior high lav and the best part was never getting caught skipping school or not signing in for homeroom.

MONA LIPPENCOTT . . . Future Plans: Attend California State College and major in computer science technology and to live a happy and fulfilled life. I leave to Miss Zavatchan, Miss Morton and Mr. Ferek a case of M&M's and to my sister Tina all the good times and bad times at CAHS. I'll always remember the crazy times during the summer at the drive-in. And the crazy weekend of September 19 when we went camping . . . the water battle on the lake . . . supposedly playing cards in the tent . . . the little white car and the short cut through the trailer court . . . A. K.'s first donut . . . all the fun at SAT classes . . . all the fun at the ball — especially afterwards . . . all the times before we went to Kesock's . . . when we went sled-riding and A. K. lost her boot in the creek . . . my birthday when we all went for a ride in A. K.'s car for the first time . . . these are almost all the good times I will remember forever.

Are you ready,
Are you ready for this
Are you hanging on the edge of your seat
Out of the doorway the bullets rip
To the sound of the beat
Another one bites the dust
Another one bites the dust
And another one gone
And another one gone
Another one bites the dust
Hey, I'm gonna' get you, too
Another one bites the dust

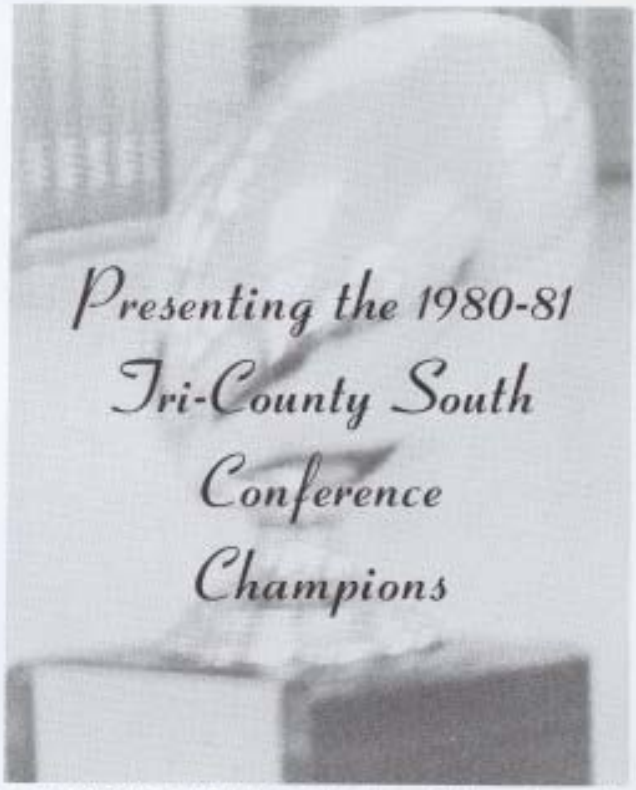
Coach Tom McCombs.



The Mighty Mikes had a tremendously successful season this year with the returning of the veteran line and the initiative backs. With the experienced team, they were able to go as far as the semi-finals in the WPIAL playoffs. Before that, the Mighty Mikes tore apart their regular season opponents with brazen regularity. They ended as the Tri-County South Co-Champions.

In the first playoff game, the Mikes were victorious as they trounced Serra Catholic 20-18. Then, in the semi-final game they lost to Laurel 27-9. This was the farthest the Mikes have been since 1952.

During their winning streak, a sign that read: Walk Proud, This Is Mike Country, was erected at the bank on the town square. Those six words said everything.

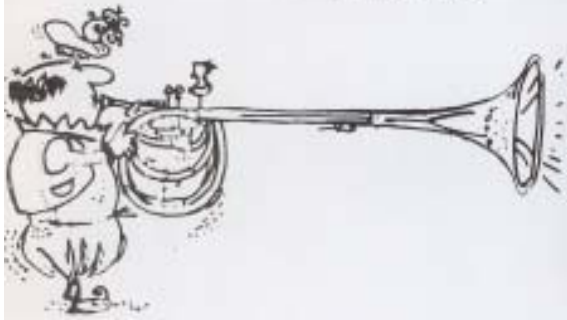
Mighty Mike Band Marches On

As the time of year approached for activities to begin, the CAHS Marching Band began its long march through the school year. The music and choreography, which was all under the direction of Mr. William Craig, dazzled the crowds. They marched in various parades like the famous Coal Show Parade and the Waynesburg Christmas Parade. They have put on concerts and have been raising money all sorts of ways for future activities including a trip.



Band Officers: Kelly Harr, Bill Hanushock, John Zubal, Jackie Brodak.

Mike Staff Becomes Mightier

This year The Mike became The Mighty Mike and continued supplying the students at CAHS an entertaining and oftentimes revealing newspaper. The newspaper was constructed in Mr. Neroni's journalism class and this year's editor was Stan Wozniak. The staff, although small, maintained a high level of creativity, enthusiasm, and credibility.

Majorettes Light Up the Night

At the start of the new school year, the majorettes returned from Seton Hill College where they learned numerous new techniques. The CAHS majorettes won a superior ribbon for the "most improved," a red ribbon for their novelty routine to "New York, New York" and one white ribbon for overall performance. The majorettes were able to attend camp because of funds raised from bake sales, hoagie sales, and donations from the band boosters.

French and Spanish Clubs Attend Sky Show

Left to Right: Karen Lilley, President; Susan Maslanka, Vice-President; Robin McWilliams, Treasurer; Pam Baxter, Secretary.

This past school year found the Spanish and French Clubs in various activities. Both the Spanish and French Club sold candy to fund a trip to Buhl Planetarium in Pittsburgh where they saw a sky show and the Spanish Club went on another field trip on the Gateway Clipper. They had a dinner while on the cruise. All in all, it was a very active year for both of the clubs.

Cheerleaders Explode With Spirit

The CAHS Varsity Cheerleaders worked very hard throughout the year. So that they could attend camp, the cheerleaders sold hoagies and various other fund-raisers. While they were at camp they won two blue ribbons, an outstanding pom-pom routine ribbon and a plaque for the most outstanding squad.

The cheerleaders cheered at football and basketball games, and at the wrestling matches. They led the Mighty Mikes on to many victories throughout the year and enjoyed a prosperous, spirited year. The seniors wish the best of luck to all the future cheerleaders.

Student Council Full Speed Ahead

This year's student council was very active in keeping the student body happy. The annual magazine campaign was a success and the student body's reward was the showing of the film "Creature From the Black Lagoon" in 3-D. The homecoming festivities and dances were fine memories and some of the members put together a student handbook for the 1981-82 school year. The council purchased two trophy cases this year.

NHS Pride Shines Through

The National Honor Society qualities of character, service, leadership and scholarship are present in each of its members. The NHS this year elected Susan Hathaway and Alex Galatic to compete for a scholarship and Chris Vrana and Stan Wozniak were chairpersons to plan some type of trip for the club. New National Honor Society members were inducted and initiated last spring.

The Senior Standing Committee, sponsored by Mr. Smell, sold an assortment of Sarris Candy at Christmas and Easter. The candy sale provided money for the seniors to have a prom and a senior class banquet which was held at the end of the school year. The Committee wanted to make sure that all the seniors had special memories of their senior year.

The Junior Standing Committee, sponsored by Miss Gibson, compiled and sold a 1981 calendar picturing many school activities. This sale was held to pay for the annual Cinderella Ball for juniors and seniors. The ball, which was very successful, was held at the Nemacolin Country Club. The committee is also responsible for choosing a junior girl to represent the school in the annual Coal Queen Pageant.

Yearbook Staff Takes First Place

Over the summer Jo Ann Cayton, Stan Wozniak and Chris Vrana attended a Seven Springs Yearbook Seminar and brought home a first place award for their "Effort." After many new friendships and all the parties, they got down to some serious yearbook work. The staff editors and business manager hope that they have put together a memorandum that the class of 81 can hold near their hearts for the rest of their lives.

Drama Club, a Huge Success

The Drama Club's reputation was thrust into an aura of credibility with last year's success of the production of "My Fair Lady." Although there were some financial difficulties, the Drama Club whose sponsor is Mr. Neroni and whose president is Mary Durco, overcame such hurdles and did the play "Oklahoma." "Oklahoma," thanks to the Drama Club and its 80 members, was another huge success.

OKLAHOMA

Oh what a beautiful morning
Oh what a beautiful day
I've got a beautiful feeling
Everything's goin' my way

Yes Sir, They Went About as Far as They Can Go!

After many tough months of rehearsals and many minor complications, the Drama Club finally got it all together and presented Rodgers and Hammersteins' "Oklahoma." The play was held on April 10, 11, 12 in the auditorium and the large crowds applause shook the auditorium. For all those students involved "Oklahoma" is now just a memory, and a sensational one at that.

The farmer and the cowman should be friends
Oh, the farmer and the cowman should be friends
One man likes to push a plough
The other likes to chase a cow . . .
But that's no reason why
They can't be friends.

Out of my dreams
And into the hush of falling shadows . . .
When the mist is low
And the stars are breaking through
Then out of my dreams I'll go.

Oklahoma,

Where the wind comes sweeping down the plain.
Oklahoma,
Where the waving
wheat can sure smell sweet
when the wind comes right behind the rain.

Understanding is knowing without words how friends feel;
Perceiving the joy,
sorrow or pain
they are experiencing.
Identifying with their secret longings,
personal successes
and failures.
Knowing what to say
or what not to say;
Making their burden
easier to bear
and their happiness more real because they are sharing it.

What's everybody looking at?

Don't cry Mindi.

None of our business?

These pictures are from the two days when all seniors rehearsed for the long-awaited graduation ceremonies. May 29, 1981, came much faster than a lot of the seniors thought it would and before we knew it, we were marching down the steps to the football field. That was the last time we walked those steps as a senior at Carmichaels Area High School.

Coal Queen Candidates

Kim Kerr, Christine Vrana, Tonya Housel

Three girls from CAHS competed for the title of the Carmichaels Area Coal Queen Candidate in May of 1980. Kim Kerr performed a song and skit from "Cinderella." Tonya Housel did a musical selection on the piano. Christine Vrana sang "What I Did For Love." Christine was then chosen as the CAHS candidate and went on to compete against girls from surrounding schools.

Junior High Wrestling

This year's varsity wrestling team started their season overturning Bentworth and Mapletown. Later in the season they tore apart prominent opponents like Brownsville, Immaculate Conception, Albert Gallatin, University High and Laurel Highlands. They ended with a 9-4 season.

Both Mike Jones and Bubba Riley progressed to the sectional competition held at Waynesburgh High. Mike also went on to the regionals held at California State College.

This year's lettermen were: Mike Jones, Bubba Riley, Alex Galatic, Dave Riley, Gary Riley, Bill Mundell, and Mark Henry.

Golf Team Takes Section 17 Championship

This year's 1980-81 golf team set an excellent example for all of our team sports to follow. They began another winning season for us all at C.A.H.S.

The golf team displayed fine spirit and talent by winning the Section 17 Title this fall. The Mikes finished with an undefeated 8-0 record with two shut-outs. The members wish to thank Coach Hoyle for his support that paid off.

Seniors who will be leaving are Bill Connor, Ron Zavora, and Alex Galatic.

Even though this year's boys' basketball team had their share of trouble, they overcame hurdles and turned a disappointing season into a learning experience. Through all the long hours of practice and the tedious last-minute decisions, the boys learned enough to help them in future seasons. Players that shined on the courts were: J. L. Lechner, Dana Nichols, Joe Durco, Bob Connor, John Townsend, Bill Connor and Jaime Wamsley.

Jr. Varsity: Left to Right: Sean Shea, Wade Reiss, Tom Antonelli, Jaime Wamsley, Jim Osborne, Tim Blasinsky, J. L. Lechner, Alex Lucaks.

Girls Sink Opponents in Sensational Season

There was a reason behind head coach Mr. Dorsey's obsession with long, hard practices. It was, very simply, to develop a winning girl's basketball team. It was a feat amazingly accomplished as the girls pulled off another winning season without the help of a single senior. They ended in second place in the section with a league record of 13-5. Candy Meiter and Leslie Biddle were honored with both the Greene County Coaches All-Star awards and the Pittsburgh Press Section 16 All-Star team. The letterpersons were Candy Meiter, Valerie Galatic, Leslie Biddle, Carmela Franco, Missy McWilliams and Robin McWilliams.

Girls' Softball Team Victorious

With the help of only two seniors, this year's girls softball team careened to many landslide victories and ended the season with a fantastic 12-2 season. The girls, under the head coaching of John Krajnak, outscored their opponents by 10 or more points in 8 of their 12 victories.

Sitting: Diane Policz, Jeri Pratt, Anna Belan, Holly Corso, Missy McWilliams, Carmela Franco, Cheryl Fleming. Middle Row: Pam Pecjak, Sharon Shaffer, Tammy Walmsley, Charlene Smith, Rochelle Paletta, Candy Meiter, Patty Connor. Baseball Team Scores Homerun Season

The 1980-81 baseball team had another exceptionally good season with an overall record of 17-7. Their record for sectional play was 9-3.

They met and conquered such teams as Frazier, Mon Valley, Beth Center, and Monesson. They began their section play by defeating these adversaries and other opponents such as California and Jefferson.

C.A.H.S. has spawned a very talented athlete — Bob Phillips. Early in June of '81, Bob was selected in the twenty-fifth draft round held by the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Some of our other athletic talents were chosen as lettermen for the 1980-81 season. They were: John Townsend, Ricky Hribal, Kenny Christopher, Mark Townsend, Bob Phillips, Dickie Krause, Bill Harbarger, Bill Mundell, Jerry Townsend, and Dave Smarala.

Senior Prom

On May 22, the senior class of 1981 held its senior prom. The prom, sponsored by the senior standing committees, began with a dinner and ended with music by Colony and much dancing. It was held at the Colonial Country Club in the Panorama Dining Room near Uniontown. Class President Jackie Brodak crowned the prom queen Angie Kowalewski midway through the festivities. Over 30 couples attended the event and the theme of the prom was "Just Between You And Me."

And honey, yes,
I'll have to spend it all on you
Love, Look What You've Done To Me

The annual Cinderella Ball, despite controversy on where it should be held, was a huge success. Over 40 couples attended the event which was held at the Nemacolin Country Club on November 22, 1980.

The ball was sponsored by the junior standing committee and its theme was "Love, Look What You've Done To Me." The queen chosen for this year's ball was Jean Mundell.

You always help me find my way, the love that we share grows stronger everyday . . .

Time and time again I see a love that seems strong was not meant to be . . .

Lovers often seem to say hearts can be blind to love gone astray . . .

Just between you and me our love will be.

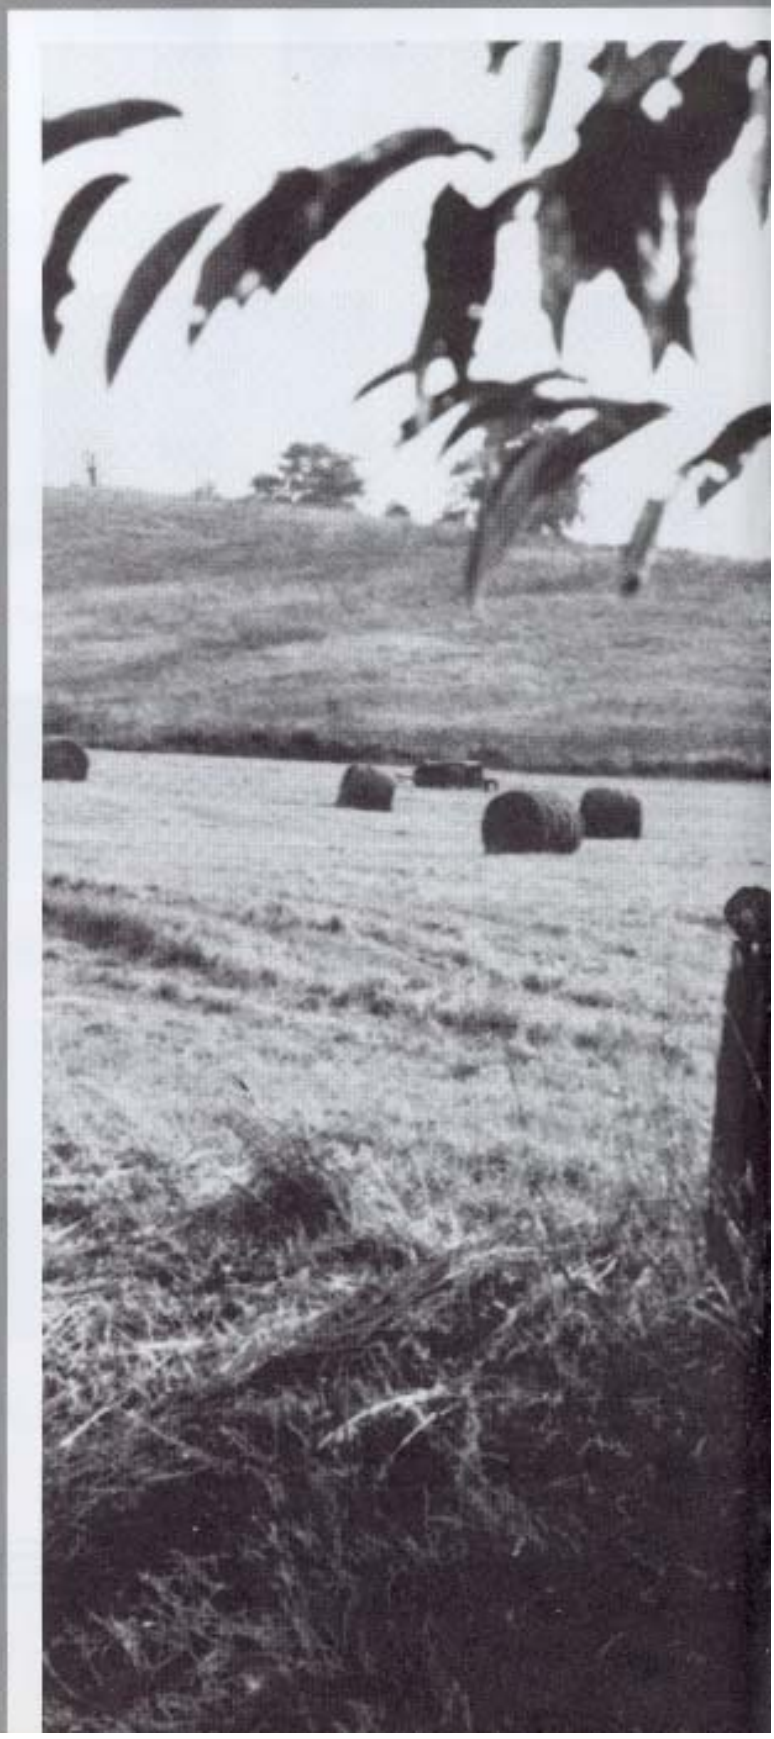
Words are sometimes hard to find, the silence can be so unkind . . .

Always, it's the same old song, someone's been hurt by a love that's gone wrong . . .

Broken hearts don't always mend left too unsure to try love again . . .

But just between you and me, baby, I know our love will always be.

What we had here was a time when we laughed, smiled and frowned and cried. Sometimes we hated it; other times we loved it. We've lived through good times, and we suffered pain during harder times. But nothing that we ever do again in our lives will we hate more than saying goodbye.



Memories . . .

Mike and his Beatle songs . . . the cement boat . . . everyone trying to get their wordpaks done . . . most of all I will remember all the friendships I have made. The class of 81 has finally made it and we are the best.

WENDELL LOAR . . . Future Plans: Be rich and live life to its fullest. I leave all the good times and my locker and I'll remember getting thrown out of the library.

MARK MARUSKA . . . Future Plans: To become a commercial artist or a renown photographer. I leave cafeteria leftovers from this year. I'll remember the homeroom comedy hour with Cameron, Sharrocon and 69 . . . all the stupid jokes . . . the cafeteria food battles . . . butter on the ceiling . . . peanuts and raisins smashed beneath my feet . . . or how about "wow, look at it snowing" or "what's that on your shirt?" . . . Hey come here. Hurry. What? Nothing . . . the bombardment game with basketballs . . . crazy candids . . . the day Gretchen almost didn't talk . . . all the zany sayings like "cut 'em off," "Big O," and "Lishy." Memories of this year and past years shall never be forgotten.

KIM MIJOY . . . Future Plans: Go on to college and then live somewhere where it's warm. I leave to all the cheerleaders (especially the new seniors) all the luck and fun we had at camp and I leave Shaneen to carry on the "tradition" and to grow up just like her big sister. I'd like to remember all the crazy scandals me, Lottie and Cindy created . . . all the late nights at Morgantown . . . coming in late in the morning and having Mr. Smeil yell at us all the time . . . receptions . . . senior night . . . football games . . . the "ole house" . . . cheerleading camp . . . Martin Hall . . . Indiana and our flat tire . . . homecoming . . . joining the band at the Ramada Inn . . . Spanky's . . . the touch hugging our super football team . . . playoffs . . . purple passion.

CAMERON McCAW . . . Future Plans: To attend Waynesburg College and get rich playing pool. I leave the cold nights at Saber Helmets and I leave the video camera to anyone. And I have more to forget than to remember. . .

JOHN MRAZEK . . . Future Plans: To attend Edinboro State College for a B.A. in Criminal Justice/Law Enforcement. I leave the juniors everything because they are going to need it. Especially when you have Mrs. Christopher's Econ class.

PAT PATTERSON . . . Future Plans: To go to the Air Force and become a great truck driver or mechanic. I leave the great work that I have done in power mechanics.

FRANK PECJAK . . . Future Plans: To attend California State College. I leave Mrs. Christopher's Econ class.

Class Colors:

"Royal Blue and Gold"

CHRIS PRATT . . . Future Plans: To marry Tammy and have a good life and be rich. I leave all the books and teachers. I'll remember having a good time with Tammy and arguing with the librarian. All the writing in my lockers. If you get in trouble just leave your name, rank and serial number.

TAMMY PRATT . . . Future Plans: To find a job in a bakery and later on open my own business. Tammy leaves her friendships with her classmates. I'd like to remember all the fun times with my friends and the times in our health classes in the junior high. I hope I can share my friendship with everybody in my senior class.

RANDY REAGAN . . . Future Plans: To have a good job. I leave the fun times doing what we did before school.

KIM ROMINES . . . Future Plans: Going to Walter's State Community College in Tennessee for nursing. I leave all the juniors Mr. Neroni's Wordpaks and Mrs. Christopher's boring Econ class. I'd like to remember all the times in the Jr. High first floor lav with S. H., M. L., A. K., K. J., S. D., N. C. and A. S. . . . the night of the Cinderella Ball and going to Spanky's where it was so crowded you couldn't move . . . snowmobiling with K. J. . . . all the times we went down to Campus to visit S. H. . . . the wonderful week C. V., K. J. and I worked at the Haunted House . . . there's a lot more I'd like to remember but I don't want to incriminate anyone.

SHERRI RANKIN . . . Future Plans: To go to West Liberty College and major in accounting. To the cheerleaders I leave all the memories of the pep rallies and football games and I ask them to forget all the times that I yelled at them. There are a lot of special times I would like to remember. The pep rallies . . . football games . . . each one was very special to me . . . the pom pom routines to "Stomp" and "Another One Bites the Dust" . . . the skits that we thought were pretty funny . . . the traditional "pie in the faces" . . . when Rim and I were elves for Children's Hospital . . . it was kind of embarrassing but not nearly as embarrassing as the time when we went to Pizza Hut and almost got kicked out because B. V., B. H. and K. C. were singing Charlie Daniels . . . taking a walk after a certain wrestling match just to see if we could . . . positions will have to be filled by this year's juniors who are eager to become seniors . . . I don't want this year to end and the idea of graduating will probably not hit me until I watch the first home football game next year and have to face the fact that I will not be in uniform and on the field behind the team.

DARLENE SHAFFER . . . Future Plans: To go to college and get a degree in elementary education. I leave to all the future seniors the honor of being a senior, all except for Econ class. I leave to Vick and Rick my locker and all of my books. I'll remember homecoming, senior night, football playoffs, the Cinderella Ball, messing up everything we made in Home Ec. Class, my first day of Econ., running through the tires on the football field, having summer practices, making hoagies and having a blast at the car wash. Good times before during and after SAT classes . . . missing gym the first nine weeks for band class . . . trying to remember all the field routines . . . telling jokes and having a good time with the colorguards . . . good luck to next year's seniors. In conclusion I'd like to remember all of the seniors and how each one of us became a part of each other's lives through the years. There were times when we got on one another's back but we always seemed to stay friends deep inside. Now that our last school year is over we never realized that we meant so much to each other and now it's too late to start over. I wish you all the best of luck in everything that you try to accomplish. Y.F.F.E.

KATHY SHAFFER . . . Future Plans: To be very successful and stay with Ray. I leave everything that I ever had. I would like to remember all the good times I had with my friends in 10th grade and I would like to remember all the good times with Becky and Laurie in my junior year and getting highest honors in my senior year. I would like to also remember all the fun I had at Vo-Tech and all the special events that we had, making the floats . . . going to competition . . . going to Century III and shopping with all my classmates.

JOHN STANISH . . . Future Plans: Go into the Marine Corps and eat a billion burgers at McDonalds and watch 'em change the sign. I leave my parking space, my locker, and Mrs. Christopher to all the lucky seniors. Memories of this year that I will never forget are the great times with SNLV Enterprises.

PETE SWIFT . . . Future Plans: To attend college, major in business and lead a very happy and wonderful life. I leave my cheerleading uniform to Dana Nichols and my big chair in the stinky locker room to the underclassmen . . . I'd like to remember all the football and baseball games we have played in . . . It was a special feeling to go to quarter finals in football . . . I would like to remember all of the people who I have had great times with in school or at parties and I hope these people will never forget too, you all know who you are.

PHIL TITUS . . . Future Plans: Attend California State College and major in computer science technology. To get a good job, get married and live a happy life. I leave to all the underclassmen the pains of being a senior, the mess in the cafeteria and to my brother Don I leave Mrs. Christopher's Econ class. I'll remember the crazy times . . . the month of August when I started going with M. L. . . . the crazy SAT classes that we went to . . . the night at the haunted house and racking the cars on the way home . . . the Cinderella ball . . . I'll remember the way CAHS was when I was a senior.

MARK TOWNSEND . . . Future Plans: Go to college and major in Psychology. I leave my chair in the locker room to D. K. and the boring Econ class to B. M. and J. T. I'll remember tearing down a huge sign off the train bridge with Janet and Sharon at Beth-Center.

JOHN TOWNSEND . . . Future Plans: Attend college somewhere. I leave the long, hot weather in August and the two weeks of Hell that only football players know. I'll remember going to the playoffs three of my four years as a football player, playing in two of the three, and making Tri-County two years and All-County two years. I will always remember my 1:30 drink of water . . . my homeroom because it was always the same people each year . . . what I'll remember the very most is my ninth, tenth, and eleventh grade years with a very special girl.

THERESA VAMOSI . . . Future Plans: To move to Florida and spend the rest of my life happily with Bob Anger. I leave to all my close friends the good times if they can find any and all of the memories from the crazy things we have done. To everyone else, good luck, you're gonna need it. I would like to remember first of all, Mindi and all the fun we had together through the years . . . the football games and how good we felt by the time they were over . . . the crazy ideas home on Bus 2 with all of my neighbors.

Class Song

Could've been the whiskey
Might have been the gin
Could've been the 3 or 4 six packs
I don't know
But look at the mess I'm in
My head is like a football
I think I'm gonna die
Tell me, me oh, me oh my
Wasn't that a party?
Someone took a grapefruit
And wore it like a hat
I saw someone under my kitchen table
Talking to my old tomcat
They were talkin' 'bout hockey
The cat was talkin' back
Long 'bout then everything went black
Wasn't that a party?
I'm sure it's just my memory
Playing tricks on me
I swore I saw my buddy
Cuttin' down my neighbor's tree
Could've been the whiskey
Might have been the gin
Could've been the 3 or 4 six packs
I don't know
But look at the mess I'm in
My head is like a football
I think I'm gonna die
Tell me, me oh, me oh my
Wasn't That a party?
Billie Jo and Tommy
Well they went a little far
They was sittin' in my back yard
Blowing on the siren from somebody's police car
So you see your Honor
It was all in fun
A little bit of track meet down on main street
Was just seeing if the cops could run
If only I could see you
Thro' this alcoholic haze
Sure could use those thirty days
To recover from
The Party

JANET VILENICA . . . Future Plans: Attend California State College and major in computer science. I leave my advanced composition class to anyone who wants it and I also leave Gibson's "boring vectors" to all senior Physics classes. Good luck. I would like to remember all the good times I had with my friends. I'll always remember me and Pam's aching feet at homecoming, and dancing in the gym after halftime. I'll also remember when Pam backed over a pole in the driver's ed car . . . when we made it all the way to the senior high to the junior high without touching the floor . . . I'll never forget (even though I'd like to) Sharon's crazy jokes that always brightened an otherwise boring lunch . . . all in all it was a wild and crazy senior year.

CHRIS VRANA . . . Future Plans: Attend WVU as a music education major, maybe come back to Carmichaels and teach and then to spread culture all over Greene County (and maybe raise a family). I leave to the majorettes the monkey suits, an "Amen" to the gang on the band bus, a hug to all my friends and a kiss to my special someone. I'd like to remember all the great times I've had with my friends and the great friends I made having fun. I want to remember meeting my sis and my big brother to boot . . . the sweat at Majorette camp . . . the swimming party at yearbook camp . . . a walk on the beach with friends at Virginia Beach . . . football games . . . band buses . . . listening to Sammy Farrell playing it again . . . befores, durings and afters, (durings the least!) . . . spending a day with sis at A-B . . . "the Haunted House" . . . drunken reindeer at the ball . . . all the plays I've done . . . being a Coal Queen candidate . . . and, finally, I want to remember all the things that CAHS taught me (and some of the things I taught CAHS!!).

EDDIE WATTERS . . . Future Plans: Go to work at a newspaper as a photographer after finishing photography school. I leave all the good memories of times I've shared with my underclassmen friends. I'd like to remember the SNLV . . . How could I forget? . . . Made school go a lot faster . . . Remember when we sprayed Larry with the fire extinguisher? . . . "candy cane" and walking down the streets while cops stared at me . . . by luck Stan got over the fence the first time . . . "George Washington" will never be the same . . . And aren't those jackets beautiful? . . . Carrying boxes . . . John shouldn't drive in Fairchance . . . SNLV memories are great.

DOUG WINSLOW . . . Future Plans: To go to college while I'm in the Marines, and be commanding officer of the guards at the new, future embassy in Iran. I leave locker 86 and bus 14 evening ride because these are the only things they are qualified to use, so such a lemon 82. Football fever . . . 3 months of never ending action . . . a beautiful paint job that was never fully appreciated . . . a set of library books . . . a slow running janitor . . . letters with wasps in them . . . 3 enemy school board members . . . proposing operation "candy cane" . . . a set of imposter jerseys . . . homecoming and throwing corn at a skunk at German . . . a band jacket . . . six hats and a new fieldhouse . . . successful "candy cane" after three tries and a month late . . . catching Hell for hanging posters from the school . . . the season was over and money and music exchanged hands, but a cold November night came along and following were the PAD folks with meat cleavers in hands . . . a couple of arson jobs . . . TOGA! TOGA! . . . a stretch of road called Route 51 . . . Walker's van . . . "all right boys, let's spike the punch" . . . plans to get a new car door (which later turned out to be a whole new car) . . . barhopping on the way home from Pittsburgh . . . Frazier High and some friends there . . . Laforre's Pizza . . . Kennywood . . . Perry-O and Pleasant Hills police . . . yearbook room . . . jacket scandal . . . two yearbooks . . . O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A . . . occupying ourselves before, during, and after play-practice . . . "Could've been the whiskey, might have been" . . . the fights . . . Micheal's wedlock redhead . . . snowstorms at practice . . . fire extinguisher at J-M . . . success with operation T-Birds . . . three girls with class . . . "Now, now truck. This bridge ain't big enough for both of us!" . . . next year's yearbook photographer . . . 8th grade gym . . . PG and Tng . . . nuke physics . . . Miss Gibson . . . my two lockers . . . Christmas night . . . death to PAD and Mopars . . . "somebody's gonna hurt someone" . . . the administration . . . "comfortably numb" . . . Century III . . . "another one bites the dust" . . . 1000 Liberty Ave . . . "Lou" . . . April 10, 11, and 12.

LOTTIE WHIPKEY . . . Future Plans: To permanently relocate to somewhere where the sun always shines, be successful in whatever I choose to do, and to make the most of whatever the future may hold in store. I leave to Linda the skill of successfully playing "the game," to Margaret the thrilling basketball games and wrestling matches, and to everyone else the excitement of Carmichaels — good luck in finding it!! I'll always remember the "adventures" of my senior year with Sebastian and the three musketeers: Delta House . . . Theta Chi . . . "sweet smelling skunks" in Waynesburg where Cindy was thrown into the fourth floor guys shower with "Ziggie" . . . tuesday and thursday at SAT classes (occasionally) . . . "Boogying down to the sound of the disco beat" at Spanky's . . . the touch (Big Earl) . . . joining Jaybird Street at Ramada . . . purple passion . . . cruisin' in Jefferson collecting "Jacquies and Ghosties" . . . Carol and I finding out who the "J.R.'s" really shot . . . the special weekend escapes to see "Sad Eyes" . . . the victory sock-hop . . . "Squeak," "Dad," and "Baby J." . . . being elected class flirt . . . and last but not least the many scandals created by Folan, MtJoy and myself. I sincerely hope Carmichaels has something to talk about for many dull days to come!!!

STAN WOZNIAK . . . Future Plans: Attend college, own a penthouse in Union City, a beach condominium on the Jersey shore, a red and white Mazzaretti, be a backup singer for Pat Benatar or Donna Summer, and eat a billion burgers at McDonalds and watch 'em change the sign. I leave my cousin Mr. Ferek my SNLV T-shirt, Rochelle and Dareen my "drawer" in my "room" and Jason and Jennifer the unmitigated humiliation of attending Jefferson High School. Wanna stop in Richeyville for a band-aid . . . you're on the wrong road . . . missed the action after dark with the "Bad Girls" . . . rollercoasters . . . born to be alive . . . where's my dancing shoes? . . . that water was deep . . . hey Stephanie, Jim's got a cold . . . that house has something in it John, there's something crawling up your neck . . . Jim's "Foxes" . . . the yearbook room and Seven Springs (now there are eight) with JoAnn and Chris and trying to tell the difference between grapes and pineapples and all the secrets in the ceiling . . . Comfortably Numb . . . PSU Day . . . See ya later Billie Jo and Vick, have to go cause I'm a wanderer . . . Susan, do me a favor . . . Shayla in the river and by the post office . . . Darlene, you better let the B 52's out of the closet . . . I'm gonna follow you till I wear you down . . . Sorry about the Bulldog Sherri . . . we aren't going to Richeyville again are we Jim? . . . tear me apart . . . give me an F, give me an R, give me an A, Z, I . . . Don't let Gina hang out the window like that . . . play practice and the angels in the balcony . . . come on Doug, it's open . . . Wanna go sled-riding Lore? . . . Can you stand up Michael? . . . I was born to run, I was born to dream, Turn Me Loose . . . Mary just stole my car . . . come back here . . . riff raff . . . the union hall hill and that damned Mopar . . . In The Heat Of The Night . . . Just passed Brit's Beer Test (with flying colors) . . . New Year's Eve . . . welcome to the wrecking ball . . . that'll keep you going through the show . . . demon eyes . . . Hey Michael, guess what? . . . "T-Birds" and then some . . . I've got some bad news for you sunshine . . . how 'bout some dirty deeds done dirt cheap . . . the farmer and the cowman should be friends . . . my clone sleeps alone . . . Lisa, I'm your knight in shining armor and I love you.

MIKE YOUGER . . . Future Plans: Be a welder and make 35,000 dollars a year (at least) and move to Minnesota and go to every Minnesota Viking football game. I leave my sympathy to whoever has Mr. Brown and locker 93 to Lisa Elek.

RON ZAVORA . . . Future Plans: Go into pharmacy. I leave the great loss of me and I'll always remember the summer before my senior year and getting out of trouble.

Graduation

1981

May 29 was the day. The weather was wet in the morning but late afternoon found the clouds disappearing into a light blue spring sky. The graduation ceremonies were held on the athletic field and speeches were given by Mr. Ferek, Dr. Zoldos, members of the clergy and members of the student body chosen as Class President, Valedictorian, and Salutatorian. It was the last time the Class of 1981 would be together. After the ceremonies there was a mad rush to the parties and the dinners.

Class President:
Jackie Brodak

Valedictorian:
Sherri Rankin

Salutatorian:
Susan Hathaway

WAYNESBURG COLLEGE

Everything at Waynesburg College points toward you and your future. Our programs, our people, our size, and our approach to learning all help you to expand your horizons and prepare for a career.

We have programs in 25 fields, including communication arts — media studies, mathematics and computer science, public service administration, and small business management, as well as one of the finest accounting programs in the East. We also have two-year programs and certification programs, including certification for athletic coaching.

Our faculty cares about the programs we offer, the courses they teach, and the education you get. They put the emphasis on teaching — not research — and you'll get the personalized attention that is very valuable.

1981 Echo Staff

We, the editors and the business manager, would like to express our thanks for the help and cooperation we re in producing our 1981 Echo. Without our sponsor, Miss Zavatchan, Mr. Ferek, Dr. Zoldos, and the followin members, this yearbook would not have turned out as well as we feel it has.

Thanks,
